file of the contemplated line of the South-Pacific Railroad, and is easy of access.

SACRAMENTO AND YOLO BRIDGE.—The Sacramento Union, of December 2d, calls attention to this bridge, and very patronizingly advises the Sacramento and Yolo delegations to get together and decide upon some plan of legislation, whereby these two counties may buy said bridge and open it free to the public, in accordance with its charter. Now, if the Union, or any other paper, or number of papers or persons can show to the people of Yolo county that they would be benefitted in any way by the joint purchase of the bridge, we will advocate the measure; but in the absence of evidence showing that substantial advantages might be secured to the county, we could not, in justice, declare in favor of such a proposition. As the case now stands, it appears that Sacramento would receive all the benefit to be derived from the transaction. We can get as much and even more for our cereals at convenient shipping points in this county than Sacramento is willing to pay for them, and goods, groceries, lumber, and all other supplies can be purchased at those points (which are accessible without the necessity of costly bridges), fully as cheap as Sacramento can furnish them. Without a quid pro quo for our money, we don't want any of the "bridge pie" on the terms proposed. We respectfully suggest to the Sacramento Union and to the Sacramento people that they had the Yolo trade almost entirely; but bad roads and high rates of toll on bridges, etc., have driven the people to open up other channels of trade, which they have done, believing that the necessity no longer exists for depending exclusively upon Sacramento to supply their wants. If our neighbors desire the trade of Yolo, let them buy the bridge and throw it open, free to the public. With such inducements as this course would present, they might reasonably expect to reclaim a portion, at least, of that which otherwise is inevitably lost.

GRAPES FLY.—This fly seriously damaged many vineyards throughout the county the past season; as it is very justly apprehended that it is a growing evil and may yet prove a still more serious detriment to the profitable culture of the vine, any successful experiments for their total or even partial destruction, would be of great value to the public. We are informed that Wm. Riley, on the old Volcano and Jackson road, carefully stripped the old outer burks from the trunks of his vines, and though for two years before the flies had been plentiful, the process seemed to have almost totally destroyed them. In favored localities the pests live the year round, sheltering themselves on the under side of the fallen grape leaves. A neighbor taking advantage of this fact, turned a large number of chickens in his vineyard, and says that they kept the leaves so much exposed by scratching that the insects were killed. Any facts bearing on this subject, will be thankfully received and published.—[Amador Ledger.]

A gentleman, who has had many years' experience in the culture of the vine, recommends the following remedy: Water, with which is mixed coal oil, say one gill to the bucketful, sprinkled on the vine morning and evening.—[Santa Clara News.]

GOLDEN CURRY.—This is the attractive title of a new literary journal which has lately made its appearance in San Francisco, published by Foard, Denmore & Foard. Its typographical appearance is very neat, and its literary selections and editorials contain much that is interesting and instructive. We cheerfully welcome it among our exchanges.

SACRAMENTO RECORD.—The enterprising proprietors of the Record have recently enlarged and otherwise improved the appearance of this excellent journal. We are pleased with this evidence of its increasing prosperity, and wish it all the success it deserves politically, and much more financially.

ABOUT AS SENSIBLE.—There is a great deal said among the Radicals, says the Herald-Burg Standard, about the Southern States "accepting the situation." This is just as sensible as talking about the convicts in San Quentin accepting their situation. Both are the results, not of free will, but of force.

"NOT INVITED."—We notice from an exchange that this was the reply given by a farmer to a tradesman, when asked, "Why don't you trade with me?" "I have looked over our local paper thoroughly, and do not find an invitation. Do you advertise?" I am not accustomed to go where I am not invited.

DEMOCRATIC STANDARD.—This paper, neat in its appearance and fearless in its advocacy of Constitutional Liberty, has changed hands, and will, henceforth, be conducted editorially and financially by Fitch & Davis, and doubtless do good work in the cause of Democracy, i. e. the cause of the people.

FELL INTO A WELL.—A man named Christian Bendick was taken to San Francisco on Monday evening last and taken to the German Hospital for surgical treatment, having received serious internal injuries by falling into a well at Rio Vista on Saturday last.

UNITED STATES SENATOR.—The balloting by the Democratic members of the Legislature, for United States Senator, at last accounts stood as follows: Hoge 11; Cassery 15; Temple 8; Wallace 12; Rose 10; Henly 1; Curtis 5; Sharp 6.

SHARP.—Two convicts in the State Prison recently feigned madness, succeeded in persuading their keepers of their insanity and were sent to Stockton; their reason soon returned and they left for parts unknown.

PASSED.—The Supervisors of San Francisco county have passed an ordinance abating the nuisance of the slaughter-houses and hog ranches at Brannan street bridge, to take effect in May next.

The Next United States Senator.

As the time approaches when it becomes necessary for the Joint Convention of the Senate and Assembly to choose a United States Senator, there appears to be an unusual amount of speculation in reference to the chances of the different aspirants for that position. The voice of the people in September last unceremoniously dropped the curtain on the nice little arrangements of the "great loyal masses," and they are at present exhibiting a wonderful interest in all the doings of the assembled Democracy which tend to the selection of a Senator. The Republican press throughout the State have suddenly abandoned the cry of a "Copperhead" and "traitor," and changed their tactics of vilification and abuse into the honeyed words of false hypocrisy, and even venture their advice in matters of interest and propose conciliation to those whom they recently denounced in unmeasured terms. The fact is, their darling object of sending a representative of their pet schemes and aims to the United States Senate, is abandoned, by virtue of inexorable necessity; and the next role in which they appear is an attempt to defeat the wishes of an overwhelming majority of the Democracy, by the conciliatory process. They are beginning to experience a healthy fear of sound Constitutional Democrats; and lest one such should be chosen in the coming contest, they are earnest in admonishing the "Union minority" to make every possible sacrifice which would be calculated to prevent such a result.

There is but one plain duty of the representatives of the Democracy now assembled at Sacramento to perform. That duty has been suggested by the triumph, in recent elections, of Constitutional Liberty over Tyrannical Usurpation! The voice of the people has gone forth with its potent influence in defense of their rights, and in just condemnation of the reckless fanatical party which has violated every principle dear to the lover of his country. A man who will stand up manfully in defense of those principles and privileges, in the teeth of all opposition, from whatever quarter it may come, is just such a person as is entitled to the honor of that exalted position. Let Democrats in the Senate and Assembly—in whose hands rest the power to bestow the gift—listen not to the wiles of the enemy, but stand up manfully in opposition to all claimants whose faith wavered in times past, and select from a number of good men who aspire to the position one who will do honor to the party and the State, and the people will say amen.

Yesterday afternoon while a light rain was falling we stopped for a few minutes to observe an animated game of cards by Indians. The players were seated upon the ground of a vacant lot, and there was a blanket spread between them upon which the stakes lay and the cards were dealt. Other Indians, men, women and children, were sitting or standing watching the game with interest. It was "poker," and as far as we could judge it was "played up to the hilt." One of the players had on a red flannel shirt and the other a gray. The "ante" was a dime. There were about $53 in silver in front of Gray and perhaps $17 in front of Red. We saw one—and the last—hand played. Gray dealt; Red passed; Gray "chipped" Red; raised him $5.00; Gray "saw" him and went him $5 better; this suited Red, who "saw" it and came back better to the extent of his bank—about $10. This seemed to be the play for Gray, who rolled his pile to the center. There was a dilemma for Red, who needed $5 for a "call." He scratched his head as if to quicken thought. A general talk ensued, in which the women of the party did not back seats. One little fat squaw, who appeared to be the particular fancy of Red, talked with great vehemence as she laid her hand first upon his shirt, then his hat and then his pantaloons. He was well-dressed, and it was apparent that the brave little squaw advised a "raise" upon Gray's shirt, but his nerve was not equal to the occasion. The players talked for a few moments; there was a sharp examination of the shirt by the squaws of Gray's family, and finally those articles were laid on the blankets and a "call" was made upon Gray's shirt, who incontinently displayed a "full" hand. There was a general laugh, in which none were more hearty than Red, who, as he walked off bare-headed and bare-backed.

SUPERSTITION.—It is unnecessary to see two horses attached to a buggy and a lady and gentleman in that buggy, and the horses going like mad through one of our back streets at just before the peep-of-day, and on another street shortly thereafter, a gentleman putting spurs to his horse and dashing along as madly, seem at least to beget a suspicion that something is like to be put on wheels, wrong with the latter, and the course of true love not exactly running smooth with the former, and if so, that he of the horse is on the wrong scent. We say the thing looked suspicious that something out of the ordinary course was about transpiring.—[Grass Valley National.]

The Golden Era remarks that this is an admirable country for the accumulation of debt. The Federal Government leads the way to an unknown number of millions; thirty-six States follow with an aggregate of seven hundred millions; then comes the counties, with full liberty to incur liabilities; after them, cities and towns; lastly, individuals.

SILVER LEDGER.—The Mendocino Democrat says a silver ledge has been discovered on Elmer river in that county, and that a company has been organized to work it. Some croppings, sent to San Francisco for assay, made a return of $47.50 to the ton.

LOWA.—An Iowa paper states that the Democratic gain in that State is about 16,000, and rightfully claims that in proportion to the voting population, it is larger than the gain in either Ohio or Pennsylvania.

The loss by the explosion at the Pacific Powder Mills, in Marin county, is about $15,000.

INFORMATION WANTED.—The U. S. Land Office, in Marysville, is closed and all business suspended, greatly to the inconvenience of settlers and persons wishing to locate and enter public lands. The office was closed about two weeks ago, and we are informed by a telegraphic order from Washington. Who is responsible for, and what is the cause of this unusual proceeding? If the officials of that office were Democrats, without doubt a Radical howl would have been raised before this, and the bare mention of a suspension of business in that department would have furnished a text for columns of the virtuous indignation of "our loyal press," but the case is different. Those men are the representatives of a negro-suffrage institution, which is just now struggling to prolong its life, and hence, there is an ominous silence upon the subject. What is the matter with the Appeal, which has so faithfully published all matters pertaining to that office, except in the present instance? Are any of your friends in chance, Mr. Appeal? or is this one of the results of the Tenure of Office Bill passed by the Mongrel Congress, which prohibits the President from appointing honest officials to fill the places of dishonest ones removed, and compels the Executive either to suspend the business of the country or see it robbed with impunity, as is the case in the Internal Revenue Department in New York and elsewhere?

WHO CAN TELL?—The Metropolitan Record says: Brownlow will succeed the President's son-in-law, Mr. Patterson, as United States Senator in 1890. After a short but not sweet struggle in the Tennessee Legislature, he was elected Senator over Colonel Stokes by a majority of 24. Tennessee should not feel very bad over this calamity. It is not an unmitigated evil. It was simply a question whether Brownlow should be the perpetual Governor of Tennessee or a U. S. Senator. He has got the Senatorship, which he cannot make a one-man power, and Tennessee should not weep. It may be a dreadful disgrace to the United States, but it is rather fortunate for Tennessee. Besides who can tell how soon the ex-person may be called down to the Lower House?

TO PRISON.—Sheriff Harris, of Sacramento, conducted to San Quentin, on Tuesday last, Ah Sing, a Chinaman, sentenced for five years for burglary. We presume Ah Sing will "accept the situation" cheerfully.

OLD MEN.—The three oldest voters registered in Solano County are: Hugh Brady, aged 79; James Morris, aged 77; and Benj. H. Brown, aged 76. They are all farmers and all Democrats.—[Solano Press.]

NEAR COLLAPSE.—A man who was digging post-holes uncovered one of the old fifty dollar "slugs," which were in use before the San Francisco mint went into operation.

JAMES GORDON BENNET is 71 years old, and is worth $3,000,000.

SYSTEMATIC AND PERSISTENT advertising is the sure road to business success.

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

Song of the Sabbatarian.

Go barbed the rivers up,
And padlock down the rail;
We'll have no train on Sunday run—
We'll have no steam sail.
Go tell the sailor on the sea
To make his canvas fast,
And trust the mercy of the waves
That Sabbath shall be past.

Command the sun to stand his course,
Forbid the wind to blow,
And tell the flowers they shall not bloom,
The trees they shall not grow;
The little wild bird shall not sing,
The lambskins shall not play,
The cattle shall all silent be—
It is the Sabbath day.

And order yonder reprobate
That strays along the road,
To turn at once from sinful ways,
And seek the house of God.
What need hath he of light and air?
Go bid him that and pray,
And put a mournful visage on—
It is the Sabbath day.

And tell the cook, when you are down,
At four o'clock we dine,
And as we'll have some company,
To lay the cloth at nine;
And tell at supper twenty-six,
And say to Mr. Brown
That after dinner we will drive
A few miles out of town.

But first run for my letters, John,
And bring them quick to hand,
That I may see before I go
How all the numbers stand;
For, if I did not watch them well,
I'd soon be in the lurch,
And then bring round the carriage, John,
And we will drive to church.

A LOVE LORN poet thus gives vent to his feelings:
Were I a court-plaster, I would be
A patch upon her lip,
And spend my life in ecstasy,
And sip, and sip, and sip.

Were I a pair of spectacles,
How dearly I would prize
A situation on her nose;
To gaze into her eyes.

An artist has painted a dog so natural that the animal had the hydrophobia during the hot weather. Here the same man that painted a beer bottle with such skill that the cork flew out just as he was finishing it. And after he was married, he painted a picture of his first baby so life-like that it cried, and his wife spanked it before she discovered her mistake.

"My dear Ellen," said a young man, "I have long wished for this sweet opportunity,
but I hardly dare to speak the deep emotions
of my heart; but I declare to you, my dear Ellen, that I love you most tenderly. Your smiles would shed—would shed—"
"Never mind the wood-shed," said Ellen,
"but go on with that pretty talk!"

WOULD MARK THEM BOTH—A poet, discussing of the eyes of rival lady-loves, exclaims:
"The bright black eye, the melting blue,
I cannot choose between the two!"
A right smart blow betwixt the two,
Will quickly make them black and blue.

An Irishman having arrived in this country, struck across the fields in search of employment. Whilst ascending a hill he suddenly came to a stand-still at the sight of a turtle, slowly wandering its way. Pat, never having seen the animal before, exclaimed: "How mother—the devil of a country is this where the snuff-boxes walk up hill!"

"The King's English" is alluded to as the standard of our vernacular; but the Queen's English is not the King's English by any means. For instance, in her late book, Victoria talks about Prince Albert's
"last fatal illness," as if he had several other fatal illnesses before.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS—"There is no truth in men," said a lady in company; "they are like musical instruments which sound a variety of tones." "In other words, madam," said a wit, "you believe that all men are lyres."

In reply to the question—"Have the Radicals any right to claim you?" General Grant rejoined: "No party on the face of the earth has a right to claim me. I never voted before and that was for Buchanan."

"Does your knitting-machine make a seam?" asked an old lady of the proprietor of the Bridgeport knitting-machine. "It sews not," was the pertinent reply.

There is a bachelor who dares not meet ladies in the street. He says they wear so many bugles on their dresses that he fears overtones from them.

"Tell your mistress I have torn the curtain," said a gentleman to a domestic of a lodging house. "Nery well, sir; mistress will put it down as rent."

My opinion is, said a philosophical old lady of much experience and observation, that any man as dies upon washing day, does it out of pure spite.

For may take her wreath and make it a wedding-ring of friendship or love; and Grief may do the same with his girl of thorns.

A boy utterly without honor and a girl without love deserve nothing else at the end of ten years than to be married to each other.

Few of us read our Bibles so curiously as to have discovered that they can contain no such word as its from Genesis to Revelation.

No love from children is sweeter than that which follows severity; so from the bitter olive is sweet, soft oil expressed.

MR. QUILL says the rise in the prices of frogs is in consequence of the preparations to tody Dickens.

Why is a prosy preacher like the middle of a wheel? Because the fellows around are tired.

"Well, wife, you can't say I ever contracted bad habits." "No, sir; you generally expanded them."

The President has pardoned Major General
Marmaduke, who was in the Confederate army.

Never be without a quarter in your pocket,
and you will always be a quarter-master.

It is supposed that the man who left the house wasn't able to take it with him.

The greatest bet ever made has been decided by printers to be the alpha-bet.

What is the greatest stand ever made for civilization? The inkstand.

Few ladies are so modest as to refuse to sit in the lap of luxury.

A GOOD NAME for the present style of short dresses: Free and knobby.

LOSSES BY FIRE!

-IN THE-

United States,

From the Organization of the Government, to the close of 1866, have Exceeded

One Thousand Million Dollars,

(Say $1,031,944,517.)

As computed from the best available statistics.

The current losses by Fire within the United States, are now an average of about

TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS PER DAY.

The calculations include only the current Fires among Mercantile, Manufacturing, and Private and Public Property. No portion of this fair land, no favored spot is exempt from the ravages of the Fire Fiend. An average amount of losses hangs over every piece of consumable property. Your house, your store, warehouse, your shop, mill, or factory is just as liable to be burned as any other of like kind and management.

It is the beneficent aim of Insurance to equalize and distribute to this immense loss, so that calamities, instead of falling with crushing weight upon the few, shall be easily borne by the many.

Are you Insured? If not, why not? The cost is trifling! The duty is manifest; the result may be your escape from ruin, while delay and neglect may involve you in irretrievable disaster, bankruptcy, poverty and cruel disappointment!
